

The York St John Graduate Attributes

All students will have the opportunity to achieve the following graduate attributes:

Global in their outlook and socially responsible

- Community minded and aware of international perspectives
- Understanding and embracing of difference
- Ethical in their decision making

Independent and self-aware

- Resilient and steadfast in meeting new challenges
- Aspirational in setting goals for personal and career development
- Self-directed and motivated, reflecting on and engaging with feedback

Digitally literate

- Engaged with technology and using it in a socially responsible way
- Capable of researching and evaluating information in a data rich world

Confident and an effective communicator

- Persuasive, able to negotiate constructively and influence others positively
- Articulate, able to present and summarise information in a range of formats for different audiences

Curious minded and research oriented

- Passionate about learning, capable of investigating new problems and ideas
- Inspired by their discipline and embracing opportunities to work across disciplines

Adaptable

- Flexible as a team player or leader
- Positive in response to change and new challenges
- Creative in applying solutions to complex problems

